

Teacher for Students With Autism

Responsible for planning and implementing effective specialized instruction; including communication, behavioral, social, and life skills as well as academic standards for students who demonstrate needs related to the Autism spectrum. Also responsible for program success through direction of assigned assistants, IEP development, implementation and maintenance, and effective communication and collaboration with parents, students, staff, and administrators. Establishes and maintains a positive, engaging, and safe learning environment characterized by care, structure, and responsiveness to student needs. Must have or be willing to obtain NM PED special ed licensure. Hiring bonus and training support available to all qualified candidates. Please submit resume, certified application, and letter of interest to personnel@emsdbears.us. Open until filled.